Suggested reading:

1. Daily Painting

Carol Marine

A simple and accessible primer on painting. Written in a very conversational style, Carol has a knack for reducing the complex to the very understandable.

2. The Painterly Approach

Bob Rohm

A very good guide for both beginners and advanced painters. He focuses on painting SHAPES not lines.

3. Landscape Painting Inside and Out

Kevin McPherson

Kevin

Probably one of the best painting teachers. Does amazing work with a limited palette. Has several books – any of them are excellent guides.

4. Alla Prima

Richard Schmid

Much more depth and information. Well worth it and inspiring. Probably America's foremost artist. Again, has a way of making complicated ideas easy to understand.

5. The Simple Secret to Better Painting

Greg Albert

A simple straightforward guide to composition and design. Lots of great examples.
